IN THE NEWS

Mansfield Market Assessment

The market caught a bid on the heels of a few lingering Cooling Degree Days in the East and a bit of heat in the South East markets. One interesting note from last week's storage number was the lack of Salt injections. This must be monitored closely because if we get to far behind, the market will catch a significant bid outside of the curve. Cash is trading flat to June at Henry Hub and other South East markets have caught a bid on the heels of warmer weather coming next week thru potentially the end of the month....

Shell Sees LNG Demand Growing Despite Iran War

Shell Plc sees long-term global demand for liquefied natural gas continuing to grow because of its flexibility and reliability, even as the conflict in the Middle East brings volatility to prices. The company expects consumption for the fuel to surge by at least 45% by 2050 from 2025 levels, it said Monday. It expects demand to range between 610 million to 780 million annually by mid-century... For More info go to <https://tinyurl.com/3hytdabx>

First Qatari LNG tanker crosses Strait of Hormuz

Washington, May 10 (SANA) The US-based Bloomberg agency reported that a Qatari liquefied natural gas tanker successfully crossed the Strait of Hormuz on Sunday while heading to Pakistan, marking the first energy shipment from the region since the outbreak of the US-Israeli war against Iran on February 28....
