IN THE NEWS

Mansfield Market Assesment

The October NYMEX natural gas contract expires today. Currently the market is down around twelve cents and feeling a bit heavy. November is only $0.055 over October, so the roll over will be muted. The huge Production outage on TCO looks like it is winding down. However, there is still around 700,000 offline that is not reaching the Gulf. We recommend monitoring the TCO EBB for the latest and greatest updates. Also, Treasury Yields are off to the moon again. This is going to have a negative effect on the broader economy, which is inflationary and could soften growth, thus bearish demand in the Natural Gas space....

Chevron, Exxon Agree Potential Crude Supply to Vietnam

Vietnam National Industry-Energy Group (PVN) has signed separate agreements with Chevron Corp and Exxon Mobil Corp for potential supply of oil and gas for Vietnam. As part of the agreements, both United States energy giants could deliver crude for Petrovietnam Refining and Petrochemical Corp's (BSR) Dung Quat Refinery in the central province of Quang Ngai, PVN said in online statements Monday. PVN said it is diversifying its feedstock sources "amid increasingly volatile global energy markets".... For More info go to https://tinyurl.com/4synbsc6

Aramco Explores Gas Unit Spinoff Valued at $100B

Aramco is reportedly exploring the creation of an independent gas division that could take on outside investors or be listed on the stock market. According to people close to the matter cited by Bloomberg News on September 26, 2026, the Saudi group has hired Evercore and Boston Consulting Group to study the reorganization, internally referred to under the working name "Project Gamma....
