

Protect Your Drivers from COVID-19 with Backyard Diesel Exhaust Fluid

A New Set of Fleet Challenges

COVID-19 has created unprecedented challenges for commercial drivers. In addition to reducing driver capacity due to sickness, the pandemic has limited driver ability to perform face-to-face deliveries. Drivers are a critical resource in fighting the pandemic, putting pressure on fleets to protect their personnel.

Protect driver health and increase driver utilization with backyard DEF deliveries.

How It Works

- ✓ Direct-to-vehicle filling or tote refills in your backyard
- ✓ Touchless DEF fills for your drivers and site personnel
- ✓ Electronic delivery tickets and invoicing

Mobile Fueling Benefits

In addition to protecting your company's critical drivers, backyard DEF deliveries benefits for your business in other ways:

- 1. Increased Driver & Truck Asset Utilization
Drivers don't need to interrupt their route for refilling.
- 2. Reduced Labor Expense
Eliminate retail wait times and extra stops.
- 3. Lower DEF Costs
Save up to 50% compared to retail DEF.
- 4. Enhanced Reporting
Transparent, detailed invoicing by vehicle.
